Baby Camel: "Mum, why do we have such a huge hump?"

Mum Camel: "They're for storing fat in, out in the desert."

Baby Camel: "Why do we have hooves, then?"

Mum Camel: "So our feet don't sink into the hot sand."

Baby Camel: "Why do we have these long, fluttery eyelashes?"

Mum Camel: "To keep the sand out of our eyes in a sandstorm."

A moment later ...

Baby Camel: "Right. So why do we have all this stuff if we live in the London Zoo?"

A state government employee sits in his office and, out of boredom, decides to see what's in his old filing cabinet. He pokes through the contents and comes across an old brass lamp. "This will look nice on my mantelpiece," he decides, and takes it home with him.

While he is polishing the lamp, a genie appears and grants him three wishes. "I wish for a beautiful castle right now!" He gets one.

Now that he can think more clearly, he states his second wish. "I wish to be on an island where beautiful women reside." Suddenly he is on an island with gorgeous females eyeing him lustfully.

He tells the genie his third and last wish: „I wish I never had to work again."

OOPS! - He's back in his government office.

A shopkeeper was dismayed when a brand new business much like his own opened up next door and erected a huge sign which read: BEST DEALS. He was horrified when another competitor opened up on the other side and announced its arrival with an even larger sign, reading: LOWEST PRICES.

The shopkeeper was panicking until he got an idea. He put the biggest sign of all over his own shop. It read: MAIN ENTRANCE.

An atheist was spending a quiet day fishing when suddenly his boat was attacked by the Loch Ness monster. In one easy flip, the beast tossed him and his boat high into the air. Then it opened its mouth to swallow both.

As the man sailed head over heels, he cried out, "Oh, my God help me!"

At once, the ferocious attack scene froze in place, and as the atheist hung in mid-air, a booming voice came down from the clouds, "I thought you didn't believe in Me!"

"Come on God, give me a break!" the man pleaded. "Two minutes ago I didn't believe in the Loch Ness monster either!"

A political activist named Dave was just arriving in Hell and was told he had a choice to make.

He could go to Capitalist Hell or to Communist Hell. Naturally, Dave wanted to compare the two, so he wandered over to Capitalist Hell. There, outside the door, was Rockefeller, looking bored. "What's it like in there?" asked in Capitalist Hell, they flay you, boil you in oil, chain you to a rock and let you starve, and cut you with sharp knives."

Dave. "Well," he replied, „

„That's terrible!" gasped Dave. "I'm going to check out Communist Hell!" He went over to Communist Hell, where he discovered a huge line of people waiting to get in. Dave pushed his way through to the head of the line, where he found Karl Marx. Dave asked him what Communist Hell was like. „In Communist Hell," said Marx, „they flay you, boil you in oil, chain you to a rock and let you starve, and cut you with sharp knives." "But ... but that's the same as Capitalist Hell" protested Dave. "True," sighed Marx, "but sometimes we don't have oil, sometimes we don't have knives ..."

Three vampires go into a bar. The bartender walks up to the first one and says, "What can I get you?"
The vampire says, "I want a pint of blood."

The bartender then asks the second vampire, and he too replies that he would like a pint of blood.

The bartender then asks the third vampire for his drink order. The vampire says, "I want a pint of plasma."

The bartender thinks for a minute and says, "Let me see if I've got this right. That's two bloods and a blood light?"

I try to listen better now:

When God gave out heads,

I thought He said beds and I asked for a soft one.

When God gave out looks,
I thought He said books and I didn't want any.

When God gave out noses,
I thought He said roses
and I asked for a red one.

When God gave out ears,
I thought He said beers
and I asked for two big ones.

When God gave out chins,
I thought He said gins
and I asked for a double.

When God gave out brains,
I thought He said trains and I said I'd take the next one.

When God gave out legs,
I thought He said kegs
So I ordered two fat ones.

Since then I've been trying to listen better

A Swiss guy, looking for directions, pulls up at a bus stop where two Englishmen are waiting. "Entschuldigung, sprechen Sie Deutsch?" he says. The two Englishmen just stare at him. "Excusez-moi, parlez-vous francais?" The two continue to stare. "Parlare Italiano?" No response.

"Hablan ustedes espanol?" Still nothing.

The Swiss guy drives off, extremely disgusted.,

The first Englishman turns to the second and says, "Y'know, maybe we should learn a foreign language ..."

'Why?' says the other, "'That bloke knew four languages, and it didn't do him any good.'

One summer evening, during a violent thunderstorm, a mother was tucking her small boy into bed. She was about to turn off the light when he asked with a tremor in his voice, „Mommy, will you sleep with me tonight?" The mother smiled and gave him a reassuring hug, „I can't, dear she said I have to sleep with Daddy."

A long silence was broken at last by a shaken little voice saying, „The big sissy."

"Guy goes to the doc, and he says, „Doc, you gotta help me. I got this terrible headache. It feels like somebody is pounding a nail through my forehead. Like I got a big pair of pliers squeezing behind my ears. It's tension from my job. I can't stop working right now, but the headache's killing me. You gotta help." So the doc says, „You know, I do have a cure. Exactly the same thing happened to me I was working too much, and I got exactly the same headache. Then one night I was performing oral sex on my wife, and her legs were squeezing my head really tight, really hard, and the pressure must have done something, because the headache was a lot better. So I did this every night for two weeks, and at the end of two weeks, the headache was gone." And the guy says, „I'm desperate, Doc, I'll try anything." The doc said, -Well, then, I'll see you in two weeks." So the guy goes away, and two weeks later he comes back for his appointment and he's the most cheerful guy in the world. And he says, „Doc, you're a miracleworker. I did just what you told me, and the headache's gone. Vanished. I feel great. I think it's got to be the pressure, and by the way, you've got a beautiful home.--

Taxiing down the tarmac, a plane abruptly stopped, turned around and returned to the gate. After an hour-long wait, it finally took off. A concerned passenger asked the flight attendant, "What was the problem?"

"The pilot was bothered by a noise he heard in the engine," he explained.

"So it took an hour to fix the problem?" the passenger asked.

"No," he replied, „It took us an hour to find another pilot".

A skier's dictionary

Alp - One of a number of ski mountains in Europe. Also a shouted request for assistance made by a European skier on a U.S. mountain. An appropriate reply: "What Zermatter?"

Avalanche - One of the few actual perils skiers face that needlessly frighten timid individuals away from the sport. See also: Blizzard, Fracture, Frostbite, Hypothermia, Lift Collapse.

Bindings - Automatic mechanisms that protect skiers from potentially serious injury during a fall by releasing skis from boots, sending the skis skittering across the slope where they trip two other skiers, and so on and on, eventually causing the entire slope to be protected from serious injury.

Bones - There are 206 in the human body. No need for dismay, however: There are two bones of the middle ear that have never been broken in a skiing accident.

Cross-Country Skiing - Traditional Scandinavian all-terrain snow-travelling technique. It's good exercise. It doesn't require the purchase of costly lift tickets. It has no crowds or lines. It isn't skiing. See Cross-Country Something-Or-Other.

Cross-Country Something-or-Other - Touring on skis along trails in scenic wilderness, gliding through snow-hushed woods far from the hubbub of the ski slopes, hearing nothing but the whispery hiss of the skis slipping through snow and the muffled tinkle of car keys dropping into the puffy powder of a deep, wind-sculped drift.

Exercises - A few simple warm-ups to make sure you're prepared for the slopes: *Tie a cinder block to each foot with old belts and climb a flight of stairs. *Sit on the outside of a second-story window ledge with your skis on and your poles in your lap for 30 minutes. *Bind your legs together at the ankles, lie flat on the floor; then, holding a banana in each hand, get to your feet.

Gloves - Designed to be tight enough around the wrist to restrict circulation, but not so closefitting as to allow any manual dexterity; they should also admit moisture from the outside without permitting any dampness within to escape.

Gravity - One of four fundamental forces in nature that affect skiers. The other three are the strong force, which makes bindings jam; the weak force, which makes ankles give way on turns; and electromagnetism, which produces dead batteries in expensive ski-resort parking lots. See Inertia.

Inertia - Tendency of a skier's body to resist changes in direction or speed due to the action of Newton's First Law of Motion. Goes along with these other physical laws: * Two objects of greatly different mass falling side by side will have the same rate of descent, but the lighter one will have larger hospital bills. * Matter can neither be created nor destroyed, but if it drops out of a parka pocket, don't expect to encounter it again in our universe. * When an irresistible force meets an immovable object, an unethical lawyer will immediately appear.

Prejump - Manuever in which an expert skier makes a controlled jump just ahead of a bump. Beginners can execute a controlled prefall just before losing their balance and, if they wish, can precede it with a prescream and a few pregroans.

Shin - The bruised area on the front of the leg that runs from the point where the ache from the wrenched knee ends to where the soreness from the strained ankle begins.

Ski! - A shout to alert people ahead that a loose ski is coming down the hill. Another warning skiers should be familiar with is "Avalanche!" - which tells everyone that a hill is coming down the hill.

Skier - One who pays an arm and a leg for the opportunity to break them.

Stance - Your knees should be flexed, but shaking slightly; your arms straight and covered with a good layer of goose flesh; your hands forward, palms clammy, knuckles white and fingers icy, your eyes a little crossed and darting in all directions. Your lips should be quivering, and you should be mumbling, "Why?"

Thor - The Scandinavian god of acheth and painth.

Traverse - To ski across a slope at an angle; one of two quick and simple methods of reducing speed.

Tree - The other method.

Oh, blessed are the flexible, for they shall not get bent out of shape.

SHE: Must've been once. I never make the same mistake twice!!!

HE: How did you get to be so beautiful?

SHE: I must've been given your share!!!

HE: Will you come out with me this Saturday?

SHE: Sorry! I'm having a headache this weekend!!!

HE: Your face must turn a few heads!

SHE: And your face must turn a few stomachs!!!

HE: Go on, don't be shy. Ask me out!

SHE: Okay, get out!!!

HE: I think I could make you very happy

SHE: Why? Are you leaving?

HE: Can I have your name?

SHE: Why, don't you already have one?

HE: Shall we go and see a film?

SHE: I've already seen it!!!

Man: Where have you been all my life?

Woman: Hiding from you.

Man: Haven't I seen you some place before?

Woman: Yes, that's why I don't go there anymore.

Man: Is this seat empty?

Woman: Yes, and this one will be if you sit down.

Man: So, what do you do for a living?

Woman: I'm a female impersonator.

Man: Hey baby, what's your sign?

Woman: Do not enter.

Man: Where have you been all my life?

Woman: Where I'll be the rest of your life - in your wildest dreams.

Wonder why??!!

I've never understood why women love cats.

Cats are dumb as a stump, independent, they don't listen, they don't come in when you call, they like to stay out all night, hit every cat in sniff distance and when they're home they like to be left alone and sleep. In other words, every quality that women hate in a man, they love in a cat.

Go figure!

Relatives gathered in the waiting room of a hospital, where their family member lay gravely ill. The doctor came in looking sombre. "I'm afraid I have bad news," he said, "The only hope left for your loved one is a brain transplant. It's an experimental procedure, and risky, and you will have to pay for the brain yourselves."

The family members sat silent as they absorbed the news. After a while, someone asked, "How much does a brain cost?" The doctor responded, "$5000 for a male brain, and $200 for a female brain." The men in the room tried not to smile, avoiding eye contact with the women. A man, unable to control his curiosity, asked, "Why is the male brain more expensive?" The doctor smiled and said, "it's standard pricing procedure. We have to reduce the price of the female brains because they've been used."

A cat dies and goes to heaven.

God says to him, "You've been a good cat all these years. A thing you desire is yours, all you have to do is ask." The cat says, "Well, I lived all my life with a poor family and had to sleep on hardwood floors." God says, "Say no more." And instantly, a fluffy pillow appears.

A few days later, six mice are killed in a tragic accident and go to heaven. God meets them at the gate with the same offer, that He made the cat. The mice respond, "All our lives we've to run. We've been chased by cats, dogs and even women with brooms. If we could only have a pair of roller skates, we wouldn't have to run anymore." God says, "Say no more." And instantly each, mouse is fitted with a beautiful pair of tiny roller skates. About a week later, God checks to see how the cat is doing: "How are you doing? Are you happy here?" He asks.

The cat yawns and stretches and says, "Oh, I've never been happier in, my life. And those meals on wheels You've been sending over are the best."

Once upon a time there was a preacher who was an avid golfer. He got up one Sunday and saw that it was a perfect day for golfing --- but the preacher had to go to church. He didn't know what to do, but in the end he called an assistant to tell him that he was sick and could not do church. He then drove to the golf course.

An angel up above was watching the preacher and was quite disturbed. He went to God and said, „Look at the preacher. He should be punished for what he is doing." God nodded in agreement. The preacher teed up on the first hole. He swung at the ball, and it sailed effortlessly through the air. It was a perfect hole-in-one. He was amazed and excited. The angel was a little shocked. „I beg your pardon, but I thought you were going to punish him." God smiled.

"Think about it - who can he tell?"

The Traffic Citation

A man was driving with his wife and mother-in-law when he was stopped by the Highway Patrol. When the man rolled down his window the officer smiled and said, "We've been trying to encourage better driving habits in this state, so we've been stopping our most courteous drivers and giving them awards for their superior driving skills. It's my pleasure to present you with this citation and a check for $100."

"Wow," said the man who was very impressed with the award.

The officer asked, "Just out of curiosity, how do you think you'll spend the money?"

The man blurted out, "Gosh, now that I can afford it, I think I'll go and get my driver's license, perhaps even some auto insurance."

His wife was stunned, and said, "Don't mind him, officer. He ALWAYS says ridiculous things when he's been drinking."

This really angered the mother-in-law who said "I knew it! I just knew something like this would happen! I TOLD you we wouldn't get far in this damn stolen car!!

3rd says: "Try electricians, man! Everything inside them is colour-coded."

4th interjects: I prefer lawyers. They're heartless, spineless and gutless, and their heads and butts are interchangeable!

To which the 5th surgeon, who has been quietly listening to the conversation, says: „I like engineers. They always understand you have a few parts left over when you're finished."
